

From '50s to Updated

Before photos

After photos

By adding room, the kitchen & dining areas were transformed. The washer & dryer moved upstairs and made way for a computer work area.

New cabinetry, engineered stone countertops, an undermounted sink, tile backspalsh, a combination of recessed & pendant lights, stainless steel appliances & marmoleum floors create functional & bright spaces.

The added room above the 1st floor addition created a utility & sewing room.